LOCATION

Inverness is the commercial and administrative centre for the Highlands of Scotland, known as the "Capital of the Highlands". It is one of the fastest growing cities in the UK with a resident population in excess of 65,000. It also has the biggest geographical shopping catchment area in the UK, spanning 10,000 sq miles (25,900 sq km) with a potential catchment population of 350,000. Inverness is a popular tourist destination, particularly during the summer months, giving additional income to the licensed and retail sectors.

The city has its own indoor retailing centre, Eastgate Shopping Centre, which along with the High Street, is represented by national and local retailers. Inverness is also regarded as the gateway to the Highlands where it inter-connects the principal trunk roads leading to the area; the A96 Aberdeen road, the A9 Perth road and the A82 Fort William road.

Specifically, the subjects are located on Seafield Road fronting onto Longman Road which is an arterial route between the city centre and the main trunk road interchanges. Nearby occupiers include Highland Industrial Supplies (HIS), Northern Ironmongery Distributions and Lifescan.
